Nextech Thrive is the ONLY program on the market that has:

- A proven role-based, user certification process for EHR/PM software
- Recognized industry consulting experts personally dedicated to each practice

"Nextech EDGE provides me an opportunity of immersive learning from best practices from staffing to usage of our systems and staying abreast of all current and new laws and regulations. Working at the front desk this all allows me to continue providing the white glove service our patients have grown to love and expect."

Veronica Cosenza
Front Desk Coordinator, Hollywood Eye Institute

"Nextech's user certification is great role-based training for any new employee. This isn't just a surface-level overview. It helps you learn the software and understand its full capabilities with detailed context for specific roles. I would highly recommend other practices sign up!"
